

The Association of British Theatre Technicians

Annual General Meeting

Tuesday 31st October 2017

LAMDA, 155 Talgarth Road, London W14 9DA

11:30 am

The Annual General Meeting of the Association of British Theatre Technicians will take place on Tuesday 31st October 2017 at LAMDA, 155 Talgarth Road, London W14 9DA commencing at 11:30am with drinks and refreshments on arrival.

We strongly recommend that you travel by public transport

For journey planning and live travel updates, visit the Transport For London website.

Getting there:

London Academy of Music & Dramatic Art,
155 Talgarth Road,
London
W14 9DA

By Tube: Barons Court (District/Piccadilly Line)

By Bus: LAMDA is served by buses on the Hammersmith Road:
9, 10, 27, 391, N9 – Brook Green/Latymer Court

Agenda:

11:30 – 12:00: Arrival with refreshments and drinks.

12:00 – 12:45: Annual General Meeting.

12:45 – 14:45: Presentation and inspection of the new production and technical facilities at LAMDA.

The new facilities at LAMDA comprise an impressive 5,500m² development, designed by Níall McLaughlin Architects and housing:

The 200-seat Sainsbury Theatre with full fly tower;

The 120-seat Carne Studio Theatre;

The Manny & Brigitta Davidson Foyer;

The Sackler Library;

A fully-equipped digital screen and audio suite;

Ten large training and rehearsal studios (including The Caroline Collins Studio, The David PJ Ross Studio, The Kleinwort Studio, The Roshan Seth Studio and The Weston Studio);

Full technical facilities, and offices in which to develop LAMDA Examinations.

The design and construction teams included BAQUS, Charcoalblue, Gillieron Scott Acoustic Design, Pell Frischmann and VolkerFitzpatrick.