AUTOCAD TRAINING REGISTRATION FORM

ABTT is offering members an AutoCAD distance learning course:

What is AutoCAD?

AutoCAD is the world's leading Computer Aided Draughting program with over 10 million users worldwide. It is used within the Theatre industry to develop technical drawings for a range of different uses.

Software

AutoCAD LT Trial software can be downloaded upon purchase of the course, providing access for 30 days and then the full AutoCAD trial for another 30 days if required.

How is the course structured?

The course is specifically tailored to the needs of users in a theatrical environment, it consists of six parts and is structured so you can create simple drawings after Part 1. The course will provide you with a foundation of skills, allowing you use the program straight away and build your knowledge. The course should take approximately 10 hours to complete, this will vary from person to person as it structured to allow you to you work at your own pace.

Tutor Expertise

David Ripley from cad4theatre provides both training and CAD resources to the entertainment industry. Throughout your course, you will be submitting exercises via email, your progress will be monitored and feedback given by David. At the conclusion of the six part course, a free tutorial introducing 3D drawing will be offered. Full support will be provided to those taking the course, so that any queries, comments or problems can be dealt with swiftly.

Course Costs

The course is made up of six parts, each part is £80 plus VAT. Payment should be made to Theatrical Trading Ltd. (Further details overleaf)
