
The Society of London Theatre and UK Theatre, in partnership with Education and Employers, are aiming to sign up 1000 industry volunteers to visit schools and tell young people about their career in theatre and the performing arts.

This means YOU, because #InspiringFutureTheatre is an open invitation to everyone who works in our industry, regardless of what stage in your career you are, or the role you play, to help us to inspire the future generation to work in our amazing industry.

The aim is to show young people the range of roles available in the theatre and performing arts industry and to encourage them to consider it a viable career option. This could be online or in person, as part of a careers event or assembly, as an informal chat or a presentation, whatever you feel comfortable with!

If you've signed up already, thank you, and please pass this on.
If you haven't...
